We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and eighty three, dedicate this yearbook to Joyce McCoy. Mark Trail, Senior Class president, wrote the following poem in memory of Joyce, who would have graduated this year.

In the hearts of many
 The memory of her remains Many eyes will water at
 The mention of her name.
 Many of us who loved her
 Many of us who cried
 She's still so real and deep in hearts
 Dear Lord, why did she die?

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming 1982

Brenda Birth is crowned Homecoming Queen. Her escort is Orlando Duran. Little Paul Smith and Missy Wilson assisted in the festivities. The day was highlighted by a parade and pep assembly down town. The day ended on a sad note with our first loss of the season to Chandler.

Each class made a float for the Homecoming Parade. Top left, Junior float, right, Freshman float, Bottom left, Sophomore float, right, Senior float, which took first place.

Cathi Lane, Homecoming Queen candidate rides in the parade.

Top, 4-H Club's float Bottom, members of the pep rally crowd.

Talent Show

The Talent Show, which was held in November, was a big success. Students of all grade levels participated. An amazing amount of talent was displayed. Who knows! Maybe one of these young performers will turn professional one day.

Marvetta Simpson won 1st prize solo.

Kim Olivier's number won 3rd prize.

Above: Lisa Arnold sings. Right: Shannon Otwell waits to perform her number, which earned her 1st place. Bottom: The skating car act was a crowd pleaser. Left: Kim Brown and Terry Collier entertain with a song.

Honey,
you are a wild and crazy guy. But sometimes you are ok. I am glad we are friends. Good luck in seventh grade with the girls! Have a good summer! Hope to see ya next year, maybe!! Love, Kimberly

Jonny,
Well, that's another year down the tubes!
You've been pretty cute and nice during the year. I'll be glad to see you next year! Love ya!

Dear Tony,
You are a very good friend, a little mean but nice, I hope you will have good luck
in the future. (you are a little weird)
